

PROPERTY POLICY FORM

NOTICE OF LOSS

WE ARE HERE TO SERVE! Please take note of the following recommendations about what to do after a loss:

- Whenever possible, protect your property to avoid any additional damages.
- Keep record of the damages using photos and save any evidence of the loss. Our adjusters could ask for this information to evaluate the loss.
- Save any invoices, receipts and documents related to your claim. This information could be helpful to our adjusters.
- Not all policies have coverage for personal property. Please, refer to your Declaration Page to evaluate what type of coverage you might have.

REMEMBER all our policies are subject to deductibles, which will be deducted from the payment on your claim. Review your Declaration Page for details.

COMPLETE the required information according to the instructions below:

- To avoid any setbacks with your claim, review the forms to make sure you've included all documentation. Also make sure you've completed and signed the notice of loss.
- If it is possible, attach photos and estimates of the damages.
- We recommend that you save copies of all the documents submitted.

Under normal circumstances, the assigned adjuster will be contacting you within three business day or sooner to set up an inspection of the property.
